Far o'er the o - cean in I know by heart ev - 'ry

dear old Kil - lar - ney, There is a girl I am long - ing to see, let - ter she's writ - ten, Read them so of - ten the edg - es are worn,

She won my heart with a wee bit of blar - ney, She's al - ways laugh - ing and Let - ters don't count when you're heart's near ly bro - ken, She's in my dreams from the brim - ful of glee. There is none sweet - er the whole wide world o - ver, night 'till the morn. Soon I'll be sail - ing a - way to Kil - lar - ney,

I've been so lone-some since I went a - way, Shure I've found out there are Back to the land that is heav-en and joy, Close in my arms how I thorns in the clo-ver, When I go back I am go - ing to stay.

long to en - fold her, Shure and I know she is miss - ing her boy.

CHORUS

Dear lit - tle girl how I love and a - dore you, Close to my heart I still cheer-ish your curl; Dear lit - tle girl may the an - gels watch o'er you, 'till I re - turn to you, dear lit - tle girl. girl.
